HERRING'S SAFE

AGAIN TRIUMPHANT
IN THE
GREAT FIRE
AT Central City, Col.

GREENSBORO, Col., June 18, 1874.

Wm. Herring & Co., Chicago.

Forty Years of the 8th Inst. reached me have (who I am standing corner this evening. The letter of the 8th Inst. you speak of, I have written, was never received. I will try to get it for you. I would say that my safe, which was one of your No. 1, Herring's Patent Champion, was in the line, and was exposed to an intense heat for a long time, and the contents of the store beneath, consisting of drugs and goods, books and papers, and notwithstanding this I found upon opening the safe that the contents remained WHOLLY UNHARMED. As there were several buildings burning, comprising the whole business of the town, I consider it a splendid illustration of the fire-proof qualities of your safes. Very respectfully yours, C. S. REED.

The above is only one more added to the long list of the famous and great Herring's Patent Champion Safes. You never hear of a large fire but that Herring's Safes are in and save their contents. A large stock on hand at our warehouses.

SCENES IN THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—The Capitol has been thronged all the evening with a vast crowd, brought together to witness the interesting scenes incident to the last night of the session. So far, however, it has been stupidly dry. The House is working hard to dispatch business, but the Senate, being a windy and dignified body, was inclined to the endless, loud-sounding talk on all subjects, from an unimportant bill pays a Kentuckian for six mules taken by a Union army during the War, up to the report of the Conference Committee on the Geneva award bill. Hours have been wasted, awaiting for the House to-night in from Conference Committees on the sundry Civil, Post-Office, and River and Harbor Appropriation bills. The Conference Committee on the Pacific bill, which has been working hard, have agreed, but it is impossible to ascertain what their report comprises. Public criticism has been excited to the highest pitch to know why the President does not send in nomination for and who they will be when he finally makes up his mind. Rumors have been flying about all day as to the names of the nominees. One report was quite generally believed, that Shepley, late Assistant Secretary Sawyer, and a Senator. Catell had been nominated. The report created the greatest indignation, which was changed to a feeling of intense relief when it was ascertained to be a canard. The probability of

WATER-BOOMB SURVEY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—The Conference Committee on the River and Harbor bill have agreed to report $200,000 for a survey of the water-routes of the country.

ANOTHER EXTENSION.

At 15 minutes before midnight the Senate unanimously consented to a resolution postponing the session until the next morning. The House, from the House, extending the present session until 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. The unanimity with which this resolution was adopted in both houses indicates that members mean to have a little rest to-night, even if further extension shall be thereby made necessary.

SLIGHT IRREGULARITIES.

A VERBALLY APPLIED FOR A RECONSIDERATION OF CERTAIN INDIAN-AGENTS IN THE HOUSE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—The House Indian-Affairs Committee yesterday afternoon, while engaged on the investigation, they have been making into the charge of fraud in letting contracts for supplies. The report says that they find no proof of fraud; that while the investigation is in progress, they find that the exigencies of the services justified Gen. Adams, of Kentucky, had charge of a minority report, in which he was joined by Comingo, of Missouri, and Giddings, of Texas, setting forth that the investigation, as far as it has gone, and is still going on, has been thorough by any means, has developed matters that are Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

THE PRESENT CONGRESS MORALLY CONSIDERED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., JUNE 22.—Upon the whole, this has not been a good session for lobbyists. No jobs of the kind have slipped past the vigilance of a House the majority of whom are new members fresh from the people; and deeply impressed with the public desire for retrenchment and reform. The frequently conspicuous has been made this session between the old and the new Congress, to the great disadvantage of the old body. The improvements, however, perceptible only in the House.

are the same old collection of pompous hypocrites that they were in the last Congress, with a few really able and conscientious men among them to make more conspicuous their general selfishness. Their time and money have been spent in vain. It is noteworthy that
